

Papers of Patrick VWRH O'Regan (1920-1961)

Patrick Valentine William Rowan Hamilton O'Regan was born on 2 February 1920. He attended Marlborough College, where his father had been a Master from 1894 until his death in 1922. In 1940 he enlisted into the RAMC, serving with the 186th Field Ambulance Service in the Middle East. He then joined the Intelligence Corps and later SOE, leading to his service in No 1 Special Force with the partisans in Italy in 1944, for which he was awarded the MC and Bar. He died in Paris on 8 March 1961.

The papers listed below comprise the second and third accessions only, and include letters written by O'Regan to his mother, initially while a member of the 186th Field Ambulance Service based in England and later from the Middle East as a member of the Intelligence Corps, GHQ and the Political Warfare Executive (PWE) Military Training School. Letters dated 1945 are sent from Camp B6, Force 136, Ceylon.

AES
JAN 1992

- 1 Papers relating to the war service of O'Regan.
- 1/1 1943 May 23 Letter from Ms F Vellacott to Mrs O'Regan, relating to O'Regan's attempts to contact her husband and join the PWE. 1p
- 1/2 1943 Aug 24,
1944 Mar 4 Photocopies of letter from Paul C Vellacott, Director of PWE in the Middle East, suggesting an interview with O'Regan to discuss his proposed transfer to PWE, and memorandum marked 'urgent', authorising the posting of O'Regan to PWE. 2pp
- 1/3 [1943] Typescript transcript of account by O'Regan of the preparations for his parachute drop into France, and description of the landing and reception. 2pp

O'REGAN

- 1/4 1944 May-
1944 Jul Typed transcript by John O'Regan (his brother) of Patrick's notes on training in Algiers for his mission to France and Northern Italy, in order to experiment and be trained in the use of propaganda against the enemy and civil population, and aid the Maquis resistance in France. 6pp
- 1/5 1944 Jul 6 Photocopies of papers relating to O'Regan's grant of parachute pay. 2pp
- 1/6 1945 Jan-
1945 Apr Typescript transcript of the account by O'Regan of his experiences with the partisans in Northern Italy, including journey via Turin in Jan to see Col Stevens, then Senior Allied Liaison Officer for Piedmont, and meeting with partisan groups near Turin in Apr. 3pp
- 1/7 1945 Mar 16 Newspaper cutting notifying the award of the MC to O'Regan. 1p
- 1/8/1-2 1945 Oct 12,
1945 Oct 23 Photocopies of letters of congratulation on the award of the MC, from Maj Gen C Gubbins and Col Louis Franck. 2pp
- 1/9 1945 Mar 23 Letter from the War Office to L Warwick James, then preparing material for the Marlborough College Register and War Service List, declining for security reasons to cite the services for which O'Regan was awarded the MC. 1p
- 1/10 1949 Apr 13 Memorandum from the War Office, entitled 'Reserve of Officers', relating to the employment of former Intelligence Officers after the WWII. 1p

O'REGAN

- 2 Series of censored letters written by O'Regan to his mother, including details of work, fellow personnel and requesting various items from home.
- 2/1/1-20 1940 Nov-
1941 Feb Letters written while a member of the RAMC, including those written from Stoke Military Hospital, Devonport, the Toc H Services Club, Wimborne and Boyle Barracks, Church Crookham, Aldershot as a member of the 186th Field Ambulance Service. 24pp
- 2/2/1-10 1941 Jul 20-
1941 Dec 9 Letters written while a private in the 186th Field Ambulance Service, RAMC in the Middle East (exact location unidentified). 11pp
- 2/3/1-19 1942 Jan 1-
1942 Oct 29 Letters written from the Middle East, initially as part of the 186th Field Ambulance Service, and from May 1942 as a Lance Corporal and part of the Intelligence Corps, (Field Services Wing) GHQ. 20pp
- 2/4/1-19 1943 Jan 12-
1943 Dec 29 Letters written from the Middle East, initially as a member of the Intelligence Corps, and from Oct 1943 from the PWE Military Training School. 20pp
- 2/5 [1944] Jan 17 Letter written from the Middle East as part of the Intelligence Corps, 6th Company Middle East. 2p
- 2/6 1944 Jul Photocopy of letter from O'Regan to his mother, to be sent in the event of his death. 2pp CLOSED
- 2/7/1-6 1945 Sep 8-
1945 Oct 13 Letters written from Camp B6, Force 136, Ceylon referring to O'Regan's hopes for employment with the Colonial Office. 11pp
- 3 Miscellaneous correspondence.
- 3/1 1942 Jun 28 Photocopy of part of a letter from BH Garnons Williams, Form Master at Marlborough, concerning O'Regan's views on war. 1p

O'REGAN

- 3/2            1942 Oct 21      Photocopy of letter to O'Regan from Sir Reader Bullard, based at the British Legation, Tehran and a friend of the family, giving social news. 2pp
- 3/3            1943-1946        Letters to O'Regan from various acquaintances including those from Walter Marsden, describing his recruitment to the Ministry of Information, Baghdad to run the 'Brotherhood of Freedom' club, (originally founded in Aden, 1940 by Freya Stark) intended to counter Axis propaganda and promote ideals of democracy. 19pp
- 3/4/1-2       1945 Oct 13,
1946 Sep 12      Photocopies of two letters (in Italian) to O'Regan from Livio Rivosecchi, member of the partisans and also known as Ruscelli. 4pp
- 3/5/1-4       1945-1946        Photocopies of letters to O'Regan from Maj Alan S Clark, including references to Ruscelli, as above. 8pp
- 3/6            [1945]            Photocopy of letter from O'Regan to Maj Alan S Clark, written while a member of Force 136 in Ceylon. 1p
- 3/7            1946 Mar 11      Photocopy of letter from JHT Goldsmith, family friend and then Deputy Chairman of the Civil Service Selection Board, concerning O'Regan's application to the Foreign Service. 4pp
- 3/8            1946 Oct 15      Photocopy of letter (in Italian) from Lorenzo Vanissi (Alpi), member of the partisans in Italy. 2pp
- 3/9/1-3       1946              Photocopies of letters (in Italian) to O'Regan from Campagna Uno, agent for the partisans in Italy.
- 3/10          1946-1948        Papers relating to O'Regan's Italian acquaintances, including letters from Michele and Anna Ghio, Italian resistance members, and photographs. All in Italian. 13pp, 3 photographs

O'REGAN

- 3/11        1952 Jul 19        Letter to O'Regan from GC Turner, Headmaster of Charterhouse School in Godalming, 1947-1952 concerning O'Regan's political views.
- 3/12        [1952]                Photocopy of draft letter by O'Regan to the The Times, as an additional note to the obituary of Christine Granville, former member of the Italian partisans. 2pp
- 4        Papers relating to the death of O'Regan in Paris, 8 March 1961.
- 4/1        1961 Mar 11,        Photocopy of obituaries from
          1961 Mar 14        The Times. 1
- 4/2        1961                Unidentified newspaper obituary, in French.
- 4/3        1961 Mar, Jun        Photocopies of letters of condolence to O'Regan's family, from Col Sir John Stevens, and Michele and Anna Ghio (with translation). 6pp
- 5        Miscellaneous papers relating to O'Regan.
- 5/1        nd                Photograph of John Roper, member of the partisans in Italy. 1p
- 5/2        nd                'A programme for General MacArthur Day', imaginary lighthearted schedule for events of the day. 1p
- 5/3        nd                Passenger list, including O'Regan, of postings to England. Incomplete. 1p
- 5/4        1955                Invitation to the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Italian Resistance, 1955 addressed to O'Regan at the British Embassy, Moscow. 2pp

O'REGAN

5/5/1-2 1990

Printed volumes, No 1 Special Force and Italian Resistance, being the proceedings of the Conference held at Bologna, 28-30 Apr 1987 comprising the text of papers given on subjects including general and particular histories of operations, with stress on British involvement, and personal memoirs. 2 vols

DRAFT

Papers of Patrick VWRH O'Regan (1920-1961)

Patrick Valentine William Rowan Hamilton O'Regan was born on 2 February 1920. He attended Marlborough College, where his father had been a Master from 1894 until his death in 1922. In 1940 he enlisted into the RAMC, serving with the 186th Field Ambulance Service in the Middle East. He then joined the Intelligence Corps and later SOE, leading to his service in No 1 Special Force with the partisans in Italy in 1944, for which he was awarded the MC and Bar. He died in Paris on 8 March 1961.

The papers listed below comprise the second and third accessions only, and include letters written by O'Regan to his mother, initially while a member of the 186th Field Ambulance Service based in England and later from the Middle East as a member of the Intelligence Corps, GHQ and the Political Warfare Executive (PWE) Military Training School. Letters dated 1945 are sent from Camp B6, Force 136, Ceylon.

AES
JAN 1992

- 1 Papers relating to the war service of O'Regan.
- 1/1 1943 May 23 Letter from Ms F Vellacott to Mrs O'Regan, relating to O'Regan's attempts to contact her husband and join the PWE. 1p
- 1/2 1943 Aug 24,
1944 Mar 4 Photocopies of letter from Paul C Vellacott, Director of PWE in the Middle East, suggesting an interview with O'Regan to discuss his proposed transfer to PWE, and memorandum marked 'urgent', authorising the posting of O'Regan to PWE. 2pp
- 1/3 [1943] Typescript transcript of account by O'Regan of the preparations for his parachute drop into France, and description of the landing and reception. 2pp

O'REGAN

- 1/4            1944 May-
                 1944 Jul            Typed transcript by John O'Regan (his brother) of Patrick's notes on training in Algiers for his mission to France and Northern Italy, in order to experiment and be trained in the use of propaganda against the enemy and civil population, and aid the Maquis resistance in France. 6pp
- 1/5            1944 Jul 6            Photocopies of papers relating to O'Regan's grant of parachute pay. 2pp
- 1/6            1945 Jan-
                 1945 Apr            Typescript transcript of the account by O'Regan of his experiences with the partisans in Northern Italy, including journey via Turin in Jan to see Col Stevens, then Senior Allied Liaison Officer for Piedmont, and meeting with partisan groups near Turin in Apr. 3pp
- 1/7            1945 Mar 16           Newspaper cutting notifying the award of the MC to O'Regan. 1p
- 1/8/1-2       1945 Oct 12,
                 1945 Oct 23           Photocopies of letters of congratulation on the award of the MC, from Maj Gen C Gubbins and Col Louis Franck. 2pp
- 1/9            1945 Mar 23           Letter from the War Office to L Warwick James, then preparing material for the Marlborough College Register and War Service List, declining for security reasons to cite the services for which O'Regan was awarded the MC. 1p
- 1/10           1949 Apr 13           Memorandum from the War Office, entitled 'Reserve of Officers', relating to the employment of former Intelligence Officers after the WWII. 1p

O'REGAN

2 Series of censored letters written by O'Regan to his mother, including details of work, fellow personnel and requesting various items from home.

- 2/1/1-20 1940 Nov-
1941 Feb Letters written while a member of the RAMC, including those written from Stoke Military Hospital, Devonport, the Toc H Services Club, Wimborne and Boyle Barracks, Church Crookham, Aldershot as a member of the 186th Field Ambulance Service. 24pp
- 2/2/1-10 1941 Jul 20-
1941 Dec 9 Letters written while a private in the 186th Field Ambulance Service, RAMC in the Middle East (exact location unidentified). 11pp
- 2/3/1-19 1942 Jan 1-
1942 Oct 29 Letters written from the Middle East, initially as part of the 186th Field Ambulance Service, and from May 1942 as a Lance Corporal and part of the Intelligence Corps, (Field Services Wing) GHQ. 20pp
- 2/4/1-19 1943 Jan 12-
1943 Dec 29 Letters written from the Middle East, initially as a member of the Intelligence Corps, and from Oct 1943 from the PWE Military Training School. 20pp
- 2/5 [1944] Jan 17 Letter written from the Middle East as part of the Intelligence Corps, 6th Company Middle East. 2p
- 2/6 1944 Jul Photocopy of letter from O'Regan to his mother, to be sent in the event of his death. 2pp CLOSED
- 2/7/1-6 1945 Sep 8-
1945 Oct 13 Letters written from Camp B6, Force 136, Ceylon referring to O'Regan's hopes for employment with the Colonial Office. 11pp

3 Miscellaneous correspondence.

- 3/1 1942 Jun 28 Photocopy of part of a letter from BH Garnons Williams, Form Master at Marlborough, concerning O'Regan's views on war. 1p

O'REGAN

- 3/2            1942 Oct 21      Photocopy of letter to O'Regan from Sir Reader Bullard, based at the British Legation, Tehran and a friend of the family, giving social news. 2pp
- 3/3            1943-1946        Letters to O'Regan from various acquaintances including those from Walter Marsden, describing his recruitment to the Ministry of Information, Baghdad to run the 'Brotherhood of Freedom' club, (originally founded in Aden, 1940 by Freya Stark) intended to counter Axis propoganda and promote ideals of democracy. 19pp
- 3/4/1-2       1945 Oct 13,
                 1946 Sep 12      Photocopies of two letters (in Italian) to O'Regan from Livio Rivosecchi, member of the partisans and also known as Ruscelli. 4pp
- 3/5/1-4       1945-1946        Photocopies of letters to O'Regan from Maj Alan S Clark, including references to Ruscelli, as above. 8pp
- 3/6            [1945]            Photocopy of letter from O'Regan to Maj Alan S Clark, written while a member of Force 136 in Ceylon. 1p
- 3/7            1946 Mar 11      Photocopy of letter from JHT Goldsmith, family friend and then Deputy Chairman of the Civil Service Selection Board, concerning O'Regan's application to the Foreign Service. 4pp
- 3/8            1946 Oct 15      Photocopy of letter (in Italian) from Lorenzo Vanissi (Alpi), member of the partisans in Italy. 2pp
- 3/9/1-3       1946              Photocopies of letters (in Italian) to O'Regan from Campagna Uno, agent for the partisans in Italy.
- 3/10          1946-1948        Papers relating to O'Regan's Italian acquaintances, including letters from Michele and Anna Ghio, Italian resistance members, and photographs. All in Italian. 13pp, 3 photographs

O'REGAN

- 3/11        1952 Jul 19        Letter to O'Regan from GC Turner, Headmaster of Charterhouse School in Godalming, 1947-1952 concerning O'Regan's political views.
- 3/12        [1952]                Photocopy of draft letter by O'Regan to the The Times, as an additional note to the obituary of Christine Granville, former member of the Italian partisans. 2pp
- 4        Papers relating to the death of O'Regan in Paris, 8 March 1961.
- 4/1        1961 Mar 11,        Photocopy of obituaries from
          1961 Mar 14        The Times. 1
- 4/2        1961                Unidentified newspaper obituary, in French.
- 4/3        1961 Mar, Jun        Photocopies of letters of condolence to O'Regan's family, from Col Sir John Stevens, and Michele and Anna Ghio (with translation). 6pp
- 5        Miscellaneous papers relating to O'Regan.
- 5/1        nd                Photograph of John Roper, member of the partisans in Italy. 1p
- 5/2        nd                'A programme for General MacArthur Day', imaginary lighthearted schedule for events of the day. 1p
- 5/3        nd                Passenger list, including O'Regan, of postings to England. Incomplete. 1p
- 5/4        1955                Invitation to the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Italian Resistance, 1955 addressed to O'Regan at the British Embassy, Moscow. 2pp

O'REGAN

5/5/1-2 1990

Printed volumes, No 1 Special Force and Italian Resistance, being the proceedings of the Conference held at Bologna, 28-30 Apr 1987 comprising the text of papers given on subjects including general and particular histories of operations, with stress on British involvement, and personal memoirs. 2 vols

DRAFT